DISCIPLINE:

Discipline is the law of nature. Without it, nothing works. Inculcating discipline amongst children is the most significant aspect of education and is not confined to school alone. Parents, too, must co-operate with the school in observing these norms:

The school attaches high degree of importance to discipline, so that the children imbibe the right habits and moral values. The school does not tolerate any kind of indiscipline and would from time to time approach the parents in case of any breach. Parents are requested to co-operate in the best interest of the child so that they are properly molded.

- (1) Students must reach the school in time.
- (2) Student's role in and outside the school must be exemplary.
- (3) Students come to school in proper school uniform daily, failing which strict action will be taken.
- (4) Silence must be observed in the school corridors and stairway during school hours. The same should be maintained while proceeding to the labs, library, assembly, games or any other activity classes.
